But he said that honda cars use N63 for a paint code and he thinks that the same color as the frame on the 350x or 250r frames. But, I am leary of his opinion on the matter. Has anyone matched up or found the correct match for the 350x or 250r red frame color? Any help would be great because I need to find a match to touch up a few spots on my 350x and 250r frames.
