Messages is a new four-level course for lower-secondary students. Each level contains 6 modules of two units, each divided into 3 manageable steps. Clear aims and outcomes for each step mean students can put what they learn into practice immediately. Each level of the course provides 80-90 hours of classwork with lots of recycling in regular four-page sections. Level 1 assumes students have studied English at primary school, but gives full coverage of all basic language areas. The course takes students to an intermediate level by the end of level 4. The Slovenian edition has been amended to include extra Workbook revision material at three levels, accounting for the requirements of the Slovenian school system. The Student's Books contain rubrics in Slovene. Changes in Teacher's Books and Teacher's Resource Packs reflect this new material accordingly. For sale by Rokus Klett in Slovenia only.

Explores how children develop linguistic and literary competence from early childhood into adolescence, in a diverse range of linguistic contexts.

Identifies evidence-backed and easy-to-implement strategies for encouraging young people to read, and helps you to position your library as an indispensable resource for supporting reading. • Considers strategies for countering the biggest barriers to reading as identified by young people • Explains how to most effectively implement common strategies to support reading engagement at your school, such as implementing sustained silent reading, having conversations about books, and reading aloud to older children • Offers strategies for promoting awareness of the ongoing value of reading and for teaching parents and teachers to encourage reading beyond the point of independent reading skill acquisition • Moves away from generalizations that reinforce gender stereotypes and stereotypes about tweens and teens related to their technology use and skills • Highlights the importance of access to books and provides evidence for the role of libraries as reading-supportive spaces

Nelson Handwriting is a widely used handwriting scheme in schools throughout the UK. It provides a clear, practical framework for implementing and developing a whole school handwriting policy. The books are sequenced for progression and contain three levels of differentiation designed for a wide range of abilities. Structured units introduce clear teaching points followed by plenty of opportunities for practice.
